

FIGURE 4.7
 January average of the zonal component of the geostrophic wind at 80°W in the Northern Hemisphere along with isotherms in degrees Celsius. Solid lines are isotachs in knots with positive values for westerly winds (broken lines for easterlies); dashed lines are isotherms; the heavy broken line denotes the tropopause. (After Kochanski, 1955.)